At the U.S. Attorney's Office, McC Campbell was the lead prosecutor in the case against financial swindler Charlie Bazarian and in Operation Stormy Nights, a nationally recognized child prostitution investigation. McC Campbell also serves as Chairman of the Oklahoma Speakers Ball which occurs at the beginning of each legislative session.

Mr. McC Campbell is also an experienced civil trial lawyer having served as lead trial counsel in numerous cases in the areas of contracts, insurance, competitive bidding, election irregularity, commercial leases, distributorship, breach of warranty, trade secrets, construction, and covenant-not-to-compete. His areas of practice include Administrative & Regulatory Practice, Appellate Practice, Election & Campaign Finance, Healthcare Litigation, Litigation & Trial Practice and White Collar Crime.

In 2009, Mr. McC Campbell was elected as a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. He graduated from Yale Law School in 1983, having already received his Bachelor of Arts from Vanderbilt University in 1980. He is admitted to the practice in the Western and Eastern Districts of Oklahoma as well as the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals. Mr. McC Campbell provides legal commentary on KTOK Radio in Oklahoma City every Thursday morning at 7:35 a.m.

In its five decades, Fellers Snider has developed many of Oklahoma's leading attorneys. Couched in the philosophies and vision of firm founder and President of the American Bar Association, James D.
